DESCRIPTION

From the first glance, the Flyer 12 exudes character. Its low profile, taut lines, and well-considered proportions reflect the sporty aesthetic that defined an era and remains fully relevant today. It's a boat designed for discerning owners seeking thrills at the helm without sacrificing the comfort of a vessel approaching 12 meters in length.

The deck is one of this model's strongest selling points. The spacious and perfectly laid-out cockpit encourages conviviality on board. The U-shaped seating area comfortably accommodates a number of guests around a central table, while the ergonomic and well-protected helm station offers excellent visibility and complete control while underway.

Below deck, the Flyer 12 impresses with its efficient use of space. The ambiance is bright, with warm finishes and a functional layout that allows for comfortable overnight stays. It features a master cabin forward, an additional guest cabin, and a convertible saloon, offering versatility rarely seen in boats of this segment.

On the water, the Beneteau Flyer 12 proves stable, agile, and safe. Its deep-V hull ensures a firm ride even in choppy seas, while the twin engines provide powerful acceleration and fast, comfortable cruising.
