DESCRIPTION

The North Wind 56, launched in 2005 by the prestigious Spanish shipyard North Wind Yachts, is a sailboat that masterfully combines classic elegance with robust performance. Designed for experienced sailors seeking both comfort and exceptional performance on long voyages, this model stands out for its build quality and luxury finishes.

The interiors of the North Wind 56 have been designed with the comfort of the crew in mind on long voyages. Fine woods, high-quality upholstery and stainless steel finishes create a sophisticated and welcoming atmosphere.

The "U"-shaped kitchen is equipped with modern appliances, allowing you to prepare meals comfortably even in difficult conditions. The main saloon is spacious and bright, with generous windows offering panoramic views, ideal for enjoying moments of rest.

This sailboat is designed to offer smooth and controlled navigation in different weather conditions. Equipped with a 22-metre aluminium mast, the North Wind 56 features a solid rig that guarantees optimal performance, whether under moderate or stronger winds. The sail system includes a furling mainsail and a genoa, which allow agile and safe manoeuvring even for small crews.
